Moving Forward

This is the time of year gardeners dream. They curl up with their seed catalogs and plan out their flora, and if you like birds, bees, and butterflies, perhaps the fauna, too!

During the past few months, I've taken a back seat to planning during COVID time, and focused instead on dreaming when we reach herd immunity. I want y'all to dream with me, because soon I'm going to send out a survey of what you want your 4-H experience to look like.

Periodically, it's important to me to get the feedback, so I know what's important to you. And what maybe needs more work. Take some time to dream during these sleepy bitter cold days, and then I will send out an email to all families with a link to the survey. Ask your kids their experiences and share your own.

This is your 4H, let's build it.

coffee corner >>>

Welcome to a new installment on the newsletter, a coffee with Emily. I can't hang out with you in person, but here's what I'm listening to right now. Things that are helping me to breathe, to forgive myself, to be better. Because 4-H isn't just about youth y'all. It starts with you, parents. YOU need to thrive as much as the youth do.

It's all about anxiety management for this girl. I feel constantly behind. So here are some of the tips and tricks I use when I'm overwhelmed.

- ASMR: Audio Sensory Meridian Response. It just has started gaining traction in the scientific world, but it is seriously relaxing at times. Check it out.
- Math. I am not a fan of math, but in those moments when I absolutely have to hold it together for professional sake, i will do a slightly complicated math problem in my head. It shuts off any eyeball leakage. (Try it!)
- Weighted Blanket. Don't have one? OH do I love mine. It makes a huge difference in my life.
- But the best advice I've received as of late: let go of the tension. For the longest time I thought I carried my stress in my shoulders. But actually it's in my diaphragm. MAN makes a huge difference when I can instantly check in and release the hold I have on it.

Hoping your lives are a little less tense and more hope filled these days.

Food Pantry Challenge

The club with the most points will receive a gift from La Crosse County 4H (will offer the leaders a choice!) The zoom, though past, is recorded, check with your club leaders if you want to participate!

4-H FOOD PANTRY SCAVENGER HUNT

WHO: 4-H Clubs in Crawford, LaCrosse, Monroe, Richland and Vernon Counties

WHAT: A Food Pantry Scavenger Hunt - a food drive to collect goods for your local pantry

WHY: To help your community, a fun competition with fellow 4-H members, learn more about how food pantries operate and how they serve your community

WHEN: Informational zoom January 26th at 7p.m. Learn more about the "hunt" and about food pantries and food budgeting from local experts. Contact Amy Mitchell, Crawford Co. 4-H Educator to register for zoom or scan QR code with your phone's camera. amy.mitchell@wisc.edu, 608-326-0228

It's simple! Collect as many items from the list of needed items for food pantries, have a family from each club collect it, tally points from each item collected (higher need items are higher points), donate to your local pantry, turn in your points by March 5th to your 4-H educator. Materials will be sent to each participating club.

2020 YQCA Training

For youth exhibitors that wish to participate in the 2020 Wisconsin State Fair, Youth for the Quality Care of Animals (YQCA) training is required. This training is also required for the 2020 La Crosse Interstate Fair, but for swine exhibitors only.

There are 3 different ways to complete your YQCA training this year (see below).

ONLINE:

YQCA training can be taken online in the form of self-guided modules. The cost for this format is $12 per youth. To get this off your to-do list - visit <http://yqca.learngrow.io/Account/Login> and enter your 4HOnline profile information. Module content varies based on youth's current school grade. Modules do not have to be completed in a single sitting. Upon completion of training, an online certificate will be generated which will have a certificate number on it which is needed for fair entries. It is recommended that these e-certificates be printed for records.

TEST OUT:

The new "test out" option will be available only for youth ages 12, 15, 19 years old who feel they have sufficient knowledge of the YQCA training content. Youth will only have 1 chance to pass a 50 question exam at 80% or better. Upon passing, certification will be good for 3 years until they age into the next age bracket of material. Since this option is good for 3 year's worth of modules, it costs $36 per youth. However, you will not be charged if youth do not pass with an 80% or better. Currently there are no study materials for this option.

As always, please contact the Extension Office with any questions - 608-785-9593 or lacrossecounty4h@lacrossecounty.org

Programming Guidelines Going Forward

There are a few updates to the programming guidelines. Small group programming is still ideal at group sizes of 10, ideally outside, but inside is permissible under short time frames. Please read all the information below and if you plan on holding a gathering please shoot me an email at emily.crook@wisc.edu so I can ensure you have everything you need to keep things safe. Here are some new guidelines and FAQ's related to COVID-19.

New 4-H COVID-19 Related FAQs posted

12. How does a 4-H Club or 4-H Group conduct elections if they can't meet face to face?

4-H Clubs and 4-H Groups should follow their bylaws regarding elections. Voting could take place using an online platform, email, electronic survey or mail in balloting provided that the bylaws allow for that flexibility. If the bylaws do not provide that flexibility, it is accepted practice that officer terms can be extended until an election can be conducted.

13. What if we can't meet as a 4-H Club or a 4-H Group?

4-H Clubs and 4-H Groups should continue to explore virtual or face to face meeting options, however, we realize that meeting virtually or face to face may not be feasible for all 4-H Clubs and 4-H Groups. For this reason, it is acceptable for 4-H Clubs and 4-H Groups to postpone regular meetings until March 31st, 2021 when this timeline will be reassessed. Flexibility should be considered in individual meeting requirements to allow youth to maintain their membership standing.

14. Should I re-enroll in 4-H if my club is not meeting?

Yes! Wisconsin 4-H is continuing to offer programming at the club county and state level. Youth are encouraged to enroll/re enroll in 4-H as there will be programming options that will be available to Wisconsin 4-H members. The 4-H movement has thrived for over a century and we will get through this together. We are stronger together!!

15. Our club/group has dues, can we suspend or reduce 4-H dues for 2020-21?

If it is financially feasible, 4-H Clubs and 4-H Groups may consider suspending or reducing membership dues for the 2020-21 4-H program year.

16. What if our 4-H Club or 4-H Group has excess funds because of the COVID-19 pandemic?

For the 2020-21 fiscal year, the Division of Extension and Wisconsin 4-H is suspending the Excess Funds policy for all 4-H Clubs and 4-H Groups. We realize that developing a plan to spend down excess funds during this pandemic is not practical. Once Wisconsin 4-H Clubs and 4-H Groups can resume more normal operations, the suspension of this policy will be lifted.

Simplified Approval Process for 4-H Programs

For In Person Programming only with Adults – A Program Approval Checklist still needs to be submitted in SharePoint prior to the event. No approvals are required, but complete documentation and submittal of the form is critical.

For In Person Programming that includes Youth – A Program Approval Checklist requires approval before the event by your supervisor/Area Extension Director. We are moving to a one-step approval process. Program and Institute staff are still resources for questions. Checklists will be uploaded to our current SharePoint flow process for approval. Educators will continue to upload the program contact log for youth programs after the event.

Both of these changes rely on Educators understanding our current policy and guidance around programming. Educators will be responsible for ensuring compliance for programming they are leading and that are volunteer led. Current program guidance continues to be posted on our SharePoint COVID-19 site under "Return to Workplace".
